

ORDER BELOW EX. 01 IN CRIMINAL BAIL APPLICATION
NO. 103 OF 2022

{Karan Ramsharan Sharma vs. The State of Maharashtra through Mhasrul Police Station}

This is the bail application under section 439 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 filed by the applicant-accused in crime No. 161 of 2021 registered with Mhasrul Police Station, Nashik for the offences punishable under sections 395 and 341 of the IPC.

02] The applicant contended that false and fabricated case is registered against him. He has no concerned with the crime. There is one day delay in lodging F. I. R. He has no criminal antecedent. Nothing remained to be recovered from him. His family is dependent on him. So, he has prayed for grant of bail.

03] learned APP has filed say at Ex. 04 and I. O. has also filed say at Ex. 05. They have stated that the offence is of serious nature. The test identification parade of the accused is to be conducted. The investigation is going on. The motor cycle and the jacket is to be recovered from the accused. The main accused is yet to be arrested. If he is released on bail, he will threat the prosecution witnesses. Hence, they have prayed for rejection of bail.

04] Heard the learned counsel for accused and learned APP. They have argued as per their stand taken.

05] I have gone through application, say, arguments, documents, police papers. There is prima-facie case against the accused. But, his role is limited. He has not used any weapon in the crime. He is not the main accused as per the police. He has no criminal antecedent and is young. Only for his test identification parade, his bail cannot be rejected. He is entitled for bail on suitable terms and conditions. Hence, the following order :
